Entries will be judged on a combination of the following: Sustainability, Innovation, Creativity, Wearability, Stage Impact, Functionality.

Note: You cannot enter a piece that has been entered in the Sustainable Art Challenge in previous years.

The categories for this year's challenge will be:

- Group- must consist of on child under 15 years old
- Individual- must be 16+ years

Bring your creativity to your outstanding work of art, involving a combination of the following: Sustainability, Innovation, Creativity, Wearability, Stage Impact, Functionality.

Create a masterpiece out of hard/soft materials using 75% of your resource pack by upcycling fabric scraps and old garments or make something stunning out of 'waste' from around home or work. If you do not use a minimum of 75% of the resource pack your entry will be disqualified. Any entries which use new materials will be disqualified.

Group entries must include one child under 15 years old.

Individual entries must be 16+ years old.

Be prepared to strut your stuff at the live fashion show on awards night. You will not be considered registered until you have a) paid the $10 entry fee b) collected your resource pack and c) filled in the entry form. Participants will be required to arrive early at the ReMaker Space for the fashion show rehearsal and remain on site until the awards ceremony concludes. Participants are responsible for organising their own model, hair and makeup prior to arrival at the ReMaker Space and will be responsible for bringing their entries two days earlier for pre judging: 3pm Wednesday 2nd of December. If you do not bring your entry in for pre judging you will be disqualified. You must also return any materials you did not use from the resource pack to the ReMaker by 3pm on Wednesday the 2nd of December.

The Remaker Space and Envirohub BOP retain the right to display the garments for the next two weeks at the ReMaker Space. Once the exhibition is completed you will be required to collect your garment. Envirohub BOP and the Remaker Space retain the right to use entry images for promotional purposes in relation to the Sustainable Art Challenge, the ReMaker Space and Envirohub BOP.
